

INTRODUCTION & CONCERT: KARNATAK MUSIC

PRESENTED BY

RICHARD WOLF (VINA) &
MANICKAM YOGESWARAN
(MRIDANGAM)

Richard Wolf and Manickam Yogeswaran will present an introduction to Karnatak music, the classical music of South India, followed by a concert of vina (lute) and mridangam (drum).

Richard Wolf is Professor of Music and South Asian Studies at Harvard University. Disciple of the vina virtuoso Ranganayaki Rajagopalan, Wolf has been playing the vina for more than 30 years, performing in the USA, Europe and India.

Manickam Yogeswaran has the rare skill of being both a professional vocalist and a mridangam player. Sri Yogeswaran has concertized widely and currently lives and teaches Karnatak music in Berlin. He is a disciple of Prof Sri T V Gopalkrishnan.

FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 2015, 18:00
SOUTH ASIA INSTITUTE
HEINRICH-ZIMMER LESESAAL

