

1ST – 26TH AUGUST 2016

SUMMER SCHOOL IN SPOKEN SANSKRIT

This is the 17th consecutive year that this course is being organized in Heidelberg under the guidance of Dr. Sadananda Das, who is widely known as a speaker and experienced teacher of Spoken Sanskrit. Since its beginning it is attracting students and scholars of Indology and related fields from all over the world. The course teaches students how to converse in Sanskrit on the topics of daily life. The students' active participation in the strong interactive element of the course is supported by the use of multimedia aids. This is a unique opportunity to learn and practice Spoken Sanskrit in a dynamic fashion, which increases the confidence in this language and helps to understand it better.
