A unique opportunity to learn Spoken Sanskrit with Prof. Gopabandhu Mishra who is a speaker of Sanskrit and an experienced teacher of Sanskrit conversation. This course is suitable both for beginners as well as advanced students of Sanskrit.

Prof. Gopabandhu Mishra teaches Sanskrit and Pāṇinian Grammar at the Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, India. Besides several books and research papers on Pāṇinian Grammar, he has published a number of literary works in Sanskrit, which include plays and short stories, a travelogue — Purastāt Paris — and a Sanskrit translation of „The Little Prince“ — Kāṇiyān Rājakumāraḥ.

Course Schedule
Mo. - Fr. 14:00 - 16:00 (c.t)* • Sat. 10th June, 09:00 - 15:00 • Sun. 11th June, 09:00 - 15:00
* The regular classes of the department of Cultural and Religious History of South Asia (Classical Indology) during the Crash Course will be re-scheduled.