Recitation techniques in Vedic and Classical Sanskrit

Prof. Dr. Patanjali Mishra

A unique opportunity to learn the recitation techniques from a traditional expert from Varanasi who is also a practitioner of Vedic rituals. This course is suitable both for beginners as well as advanced students of Sanskrit.

Prof. Patanjali Mishra teaches at the department of Vedic Studies at the Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, India. He belongs to the family of traditional practitioners of Śrauta- and Smārta-rituals and is also an expert and performer of Classical Sanskrit theater.

CATS / SAI 130.00.04
Mo., Wed., Thu., Fri., 4 - 6 p.m. from 17th to 28th June 2019
Registration to the course: klassische-indologie@uni-heidelberg.de

The regular classes of the department of Cultural and Religious History of South Asia (Classical Indology) during the Crash Course will be re-scheduled.