

The 1950s: Journeys into Postcolonial South Asia

The Department of History at the South Asia Institute presents 'The 1950s: Journeys into Postcolonial South Asia', a colloquium to present recent research into the postcolonial moment. The series will be held fortnightly from April 29th until July 22nd 2022 at 14:15 (CEST), and will be delivered online on Zoom.

29.04 | Swapna Kona Nayudu
(Harvard University)

13.05 | Taylor Sherman
(London School of Economics)

27.05 | Ornit Shani (Hybrid)
(University of Haifa)

17.06 | Suraj Yengde (Hybrid)
(Harvard University)

24.06 | Mytheli Sreenivas
(Ohio State University)

08.07 | Vikrant Dadawala
(Harvard University)

Registration

<https://zoom.us/meeting/register/tJMkfuCupzgoGNbB03mRfoGmW29EbU92qZMc>

More information:

<https://www.sai.uni-heidelberg.de/history/kolloquium/kolloquium.php>