

Getting to Heidelberg

International Airport

Heidelberg is located in the Rhein-Neckar region, about 100 km south of Frankfurt/Main. The nearest international airport is Frankfurt airport.

By train or bus

From Frankfurt airport there is an intercity connection to Heidelberg main station. A one-way ticket costs approximately 25 Euros. Train schedule and exact fares can be found here.

It is also possible to take the Lufthansa Airport Shuttle from Frankfurt airport to Heidelberg. The bus ends at the Crowne Plaza Hotel on Kurfürstenanlage. A one-way ticket costs 27 Euros (16 Euros for students). Buses run every hour between 7:00 am and 10:45 pm. The exact bus schedule and information on reservation procedures are available here.

By car

If you travel by car, coming from the A5, change to A 656 to Heidelberg at motorway junction Heidelberg; coming from the A 6, change at motorway junction Mannheim.

Getting to Campus:

Public transport from the main station

There are many busses or trams that go from main station to Bismarckplatz. For example bus 32, 34 or tram 22. From there it's less than 5 min walk to Campus Bergheim – Voßstraße 2, Building 4130.

For bus and tram timetables click here.

UNIVERSITÄT HEIDELBERG
ZUKUNFT
SEIT 1386

Accommodation

GuestHouse Heidelberg

Located in Bergheimer Straße 24, the GuestHouse is in close proximity to the venue in South Asia Institute as well as the city centre. The GuestHouse offers comfortable studios at reasonable prices.

Hemingway's

Ideal for travelers on a budget who enjoy the lively atmosphere of the city centre. All rooms are equipped with cable TV and WiFi; there is a separate bathroom on each floor. Single, as well as double and quadruple rooms available starting at 45 Euros per night.

Steffi's Hostel

This hostel is located close to the main station and a 16 min walk or 8 min bus ride to Bismarckplatz or the South Asia Institute. Double and dorm rooms available. The hostel regularly welcomes backpacker's from all over the world and is looking to make a contribution to sustainable travel and living.