

One semester at LUMS: experiences in Pakistan

As a student of South Asian Studies Rebecca Hadank-Rauch spent one semester at the Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS) in Pakistan. She did not only get to know the student life at a Pakistani elite university, but also got moving insights in the life of less privileged people. The great hospitality she was able to enjoy made her stay even more valuable. In her presentation she would like to share her experiences with you.

Date: Thursday, 25. January, 16:15 pm

Venue: SAI, Room 316

All are cordially invited!
